

Rebecca Roth

HB 3446 - Yes

Please allow for Oregon homeschoolers to self ascertain and self promote their own standards not using state resources to oversee a group that out-performs public school students continually.

If the state was capable of the kind of results as homeschooled students there might be the reason to bring us up to a higher standard, but it is we who are wanting public school standards to improve.