

Oregon sportsmen & women

703,000 hunters & anglers spent $929 million in 2011

SPORTSMEN BENEFIT THE STATE ECONOMY

703,000 people (residents and non-residents) hunted or fished in Oregon in 2011, more than the population of the City of Portland (703,000 vs. 584,000).

Oregon's resident sportsmen and women could fill the Oregon Ducks' Autzen Stadium more than eight times (444,000 vs. 54,000 capacity).

Sportsmen and women spent $929 million on hunting and fishing in Oregon in 2011 - that is more than the receipts for greenhouse and nursery products, the state's top agricultural commodity that year ($929 million vs. $830 million).

Hunters and anglers support more jobs in Oregon than the combined employment of Nike Inc. and Hewlett-Packard, two of the state's largest employers (14,769 vs. 11,500 combined jobs).

Spending by sportsmen and women in Oregon generated $99 million in state and local taxes in 2011 - that's enough to support the average salaries of 1,693 police and sheriff's patrol officers.

Every single state makes a contribution.

Since 1989 the Congressional Sportsmen's Foundation (CSF) has maintained a singleness of purpose that has guided the organization to become the most respected and trusted sportsmen's organization in the political arena. CSF's mission is to work with Congress, governors, and state legislatures to protect and advance hunting, recreational fishing and shooting and trapping. The unique and collective force of the Congressional Sportsmen's Caucus (CSC), the Governors Sportsmen's Caucus (GSC) and the National Assembly of Sportsmen's Caucuses (NASC), working closely with CSF, and with the support of major hunting, recreational fishing and shooting, and trapping organizations, serves as an unprecedented network of pro-sportsmen legislators that advance the agenda of America's hunters and anglers.
