

Rebecca Roth
for all the SB firearm bills

If the Fast + Furious deaths were in the news as equally as the Connecticut shooting, I might believe that the government actually cared about dead citizens. But the restrictions are aimed at law-abiding citizens and are the co-ordinated top-down attempt by the Democrat Party to re-institute gun control, which only gives government unconstitutional power over citizens such as was exercised over black people with the Jim Crow laws.