A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to speedy trial; amending ORS 135.747; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 135.747 is amended to read:

135.747. (1) If a defendant charged with a crime^[, whose trial has not been postponed upon the application of the defendant or by the consent of the defendant,] is not brought to trial within a reasonable period of time, and the defendant did not consent to or request the delay, the court shall order the accusatory instrument to be dismissed^[.] upon the showing of actual prejudice or presumptive prejudice to the defendant.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) “Actual prejudice” means:

(A) Excessive pretrial incarceration;

(B) Impairment to the defense; or

(C) Humiliation, anxiety or indignity suffered by the defendant as a result of the delay.

(b) “Presumptive prejudice” means prejudice caused by a delay so excessive and unreasonable that it shocks the conscience.

SECTION 2. This 2013 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is de-

1 clared to exist, and this 2013 Act takes effect on its passage.
