BACKGROUND: In 2011, the Legislature passed House Bill 3039, establishing the Roadside Memorial Fund to receive and appropriate monies to the Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT) to erect roadside memorial signs commemorating law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty. Pursuant to House Bill 3039, signs are erected when a concurrent resolution recognizing the police officer is adopted by the Legislature and ODOT receives funds to cover the cost of installation and maintenance. House Bill 2708A, modeled after the 2011 legislation, permits roadside memorial signs for members of the Armed Forces killed in action, upon receipt of funds to cover the cost of installation and maintenance.
