Re: HB 5050 – Oregon Youth Authority

The Oregon Youth Authority serves youth offenders ages 12-25 who have committed crimes prior to their 18th birthday. The agency exercises:

- Legal and physical custody of youth offenders committed to OYA by juvenile courts, and
- Physical custody of youth offenders committed to the Oregon Department of Corrections by adult courts and placed with OYA.

No budget notes during 2011-13

No comprehensive agencywide audits

No Emergency Board requests
