At Encore Club, dealers from the nonprofit Kings of Clubs Dealers Club slice cards across red-topped tables to poker players exercising their wits in tournaments with $25–$300 buy-ins. The club's staff pays out 100% of the prize pool to the players, rather than using the money to fill a billionaire's swimming pool. Bartenders mix classic cocktails for guests to sip as they gamble or sit on leather couches and nosh on small plates, pizza, and burgers. Complimentary WiFi amuses players between games, and big-screen TVs let patrons watch, learn, and mime the poker faces of professionals.

One Good Hand is Growing

It's been awhile since we've updated everyone. One Good Hand is quickly growing into Oregon's premier social network. We house a member base of 1000+ individuals now and still increasing. Be sure to watch over the next several months as we bring some new opportunities to our members and some new activities. We're proud to host all of you and to play poker with everyone and we look forward to the new members we are getting ready to which we are reaching out.

Starting Sunday, December 9th, One Good Hand's next expansion will be 108 Bar & Grill in the Gateway area. We will be offering our normal repertoire of cash tables with $25/50 blinds and a $20 to $60 buy in structure. 108 will also be offering much to those who find that Hold'em is becoming stale or just want to try some new things. Take a look at the schedule page for Gateway and see that we're offering several styles of tournaments. The popular PLO8 games will be offered as well as stripping away the low side and offering some straight PLO games. We'll also begin offering Big-O, which is a 5 card variation of PLO8, as well as an oldie, Pineapple.

The big new push out there will be our H.O.R.S.E. tournament. This brings an exciting new challenge for players who have wanted to look at and play some different poker games. Be sure to let us know you're interested in H.O.R.S.E. so we can contact you directly about that tourne.

Simultaneous to 108 we have Cider Mill out in the Southwest for you folks on the other side of town. Cider Mill is now hosting $25/50 with a $20-100 buy in and will soon begin offering some tournaments through the week. We hope the environment and games suit our players from the Beaverton and beyond areas and look forward to seeing new faces come into the game.

Coming in January we have one more location to be announced as well as the 2013 Quarter-1 Heads Up Championship. We'll be taking registrations from all our locations for a heads up championship spanning Cider Mill, Raino, Claudio's, Bar 108 and others. The best of the best from each location will match up in a final battle for the ultimate showdown. More details to come.
