Greetings esteemed legislators, I am writing you from a hospital bed in Mexico. I have taken time out of my normal healing process of avoiding everything stressful to urge you to please do everything in your power to prevent the ill fated Columbia River Crossing from proceeding.

I have heard dozens of rational arguments why it should not proceed. Every argument I have heard for it has been countered and replaced for another as if the supporters are playing a shell game with our future.

I hope to come home to Portland in better health and less stress. There cheaper, smarter alternatives that are not being considered. Please don't let them bankrupt us with a massive freeway debt.

Thanks for your time,
Reverend Phil Sano
