Relating to police vehicles.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. Before selling or transferring title to a police vehicle, a law enforcement agency, as defined in ORS 136.595, shall take all steps necessary to alter the vehicle so that the vehicle no longer resembles a police vehicle, including painting the vehicle a solid color, removing any insignia or other marking of the vehicle identifying it as a police vehicle and removing the spotlights, push bumper and light bar.
