ISSUES DISCUSSED:

EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT:

-1 amendment: Provides that specified portions of Oregon Route 34 shall be known as Eric McKinley and Tyler Troyer Hero Memorial Highway. Expands use of Roadside Memorial Fund to include Fallen Hero roadside memorial signs to recognize and honor those killed in action or who died as result of wounds received while serving in Armed Forces of United States. Directs Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT) to set and collect fee for costs associated with roadside memorial sign. Directs ODOT to establish size, design, and location of roadside memorial sign.

BACKGROUND:

In 2011, the Legislature established The Roadside Memorial Fund to collect and appropriate money to the Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT) for the purpose of erecting and maintaining roadside memorial signs that commemorates a law enforcement officer killed in the line of duty if: (a) a concurrent resolution recognizing the police officer killed in the line of duty is adopted by the Legislature and (b) ODOT receives the payment of a fee for expenses associated with erecting, maintaining and removing a roadside memorial sign.

Marine Lance Cpl Tyler Troyer died from wounds received while conducting combat operations against enemy forces near Al Karmah, Iraq on November 19th, 2005. Lance Cpl. Troyer was a native Oregonian, who after graduating from West Albany High School, enlisted in the Marines and was assigned to 2nd Battalion, 2nd Marine Regiment, 2nd Marine Division, II Marine Expeditionary Force, Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

Oregon National Guard Specialist Eric McKinley was killed June 13, 2004 when his vehicle was attacked by small-arms fire and an improvised explosive device in Baghdad. Specialist McKinley was a native Oregonian, who attended Philomath High School and lived in Corvallis, where he worked a Alpine Bakery. He was assigned to Company B, 2nd Battalion, 162nd Infantry Regiment, Army National Guard.
