

I've heard about a proposal to elect the President by a nationwide popular vote, and I think it is a good idea. We should elect the President in the same way we fill other offices. The candidate getting the most votes should win. The Electoral College method is a thing of the past.

Sincerely,

John A. Barba IV
4619 SW Vesta Street
Portland, OR 97219