SUNAL tanning bed - $150 (Dayton)

We are moving and sadly I need to sell my tanning bed. It's not in perfect shape but gets the job done. A couple bulbs need replaced but it still gives me an even tan as is. There is a crack in the acrylic but its on the top and doesn't keep you from being able to use it. The stereo and fan don't seem to work but I've never tried them either, don't really need them. You load and haul away. Thanks for looking and please email with any questions.

Liquidating Tanning Beds - $300 (NE Portland)

We are liquidating Tanning Beds for several salons that have gone out of business. All of the beds are commercial units and would work equally as well in a salon or in a home. All are 220. We have a vast assortment and will accept any reasonable offer. $300 and up on some of your favorite brands.

Remember all of these were in salons and when the salons closed we got the beds and they must be liquidated, we have run out of room. Your loss is our gain, we need the room, we were told to sell them fast. That means that you can have a bed for your home for far less than you are likely to spend on tanning in a season. They are various makes and models. Remember because it is important that we sell them quickly we are accepting any reasonable offer on these units. Have you thought about owning a Tanning Bed. Think about how much you spend on Tanning and the saving of having one of your own. You can own one for very little money. We have a big stock and it has to go. You can make a real deal. Don't wait they are selling fast.

We are open from 9-5 weekdays at 4630 NE 190th Lane in Portland.
