

Portland State UNIVERSITY

From the Desk of Representative Jennifer Williamson near, Portland State University offers more than 29,000 students the vibrancy of downtown Portland. Bottom Left: The class of 2012 broke records with 6,039 students graduating, including 28 percent who graduate degree. Bottom Center: All aspects of the Northwest wine business—from grape growing to distribution—are the focus of students studying Supply and Logistics Management in the School of Administration. Bottom Right: Mechanical engineering students test their windmill designs in PSU's new state-of-the-art wind tunnel.

A path to excellence