Local Government Mandate:

This bill does not affect local governments' service levels or shared revenues sufficient to trigger Section 15, Article XI of the Oregon Constitution.

Analysis:

The Department of Land Conservation and Development (DLCD) will amend statewide land use Rule(s) OAR 660-009 and 024 or adopt new rules as a result of the passage of HB 2657. The rule making process, which entails public notices and at least on hearing, is estimated at a one-time cost of $35,116. Such costs as attorney general time billed to the department, travel reimbursement, and office supplies are included in this estimate.

The Business Development Department, Cities, Counties and Special Districts report minimal to no fiscal impact associated with the passage of this bill.
