EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT: No amendment.

BACKGROUND: Mario Pastega was born December 16, 1916. He grew up in California, graduating from Armstrong School of Business in Berkeley. He served in United States Navy during World War II. After his military service, Mr. Pastega purchased a Pepsi-Cola franchise in Klamath Falls, Oregon. In 1961, Mr. Pastega and his family moved to Corvallis when he expanded his investment in the soft drink industry by purchasing a second Pepsi-Cola franchise. He expanded further in later years, buying the Tillamook and Medford franchises.

Mr. Pastega's success in the soft drink industry allowed him to invest his time, energy, and financial resources into his community in many ways. He and his wife established the Mario and Alma Pastega Golden Apple Award for excellence in service within the Corvallis School District and supported scholarships at Oregon State University, Western Oregon University and Linn-Benton Community College. He led the fundraising efforts for the Good Samaritan Regional Cancer Center in Corvallis, renovation of Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center intensive care unit and outpatient surgery center, and the Ralph Hull Regional Heart Center. His philanthropic work in education and health care led to numerous awards including the Oregon Philanthropy Award, Corvallis Senior First Award, and Oregon Ethics in Business Award. Mr. Pastega is survived by his family and his many friends.
