37 (2) The county assessor shall forward each claim filed under this section to the department, and 38 the department shall determine whether the property is eligible for the deferral.

39 (3) If the taxpayers and the homestead are determined to be eligible under ORS 311.668 and 40 311.670, respectively, a timely claim for deferral has the effect of:

42 year beginning on July 1 of the year in which the claim is filed.

43 (b) Continuing the deferral of the payment by the taxpayers of any property taxes deferred under

4 deferral under ORS 311.666 to 311.701 that may be granted to taxpayers who have not previously
5 been granted deferral is the number of such claims granted for the property tax year beginning on 6 July 1, 2011, multiplied by 105 percent.

7 (B) For each property tax year beginning after July 1, 2012, the maximum number of claims for 8 deferral that may be granted to taxpayers who have not previously been granted deferral is the 10 year [immediately preceding] multiplied by 105 percent.

11 (b) For purposes of paragraph (a) of this subsection, spouses who continue deferral under ORS

13 (c) If the number of eligible claims described in paragraph (a) of this subsection exceeds the 14 maximum number determined under paragraph (a) of this subsection, claims shall be granted in as-

16 on the last certified assessment and tax roll divided by the [applicable percentage of] county median

18 under paragraph (a) of this subsection is reached.

25 [initially] granted under ORS 311.666 to 311.701, and that remain unpaid, shall remain a lien and
26 shall become delinquent as otherwise provided by law, but are not subject to foreclosure under ORS

18 foreclosure proceedings shall be instituted or continued without regard to this section and such 19 judgment shall be of full force and effect as if this section did not exist.

20 (9) Interest on taxes to which this section applies shall be determined from the same dates, in
