5 SECTION 1. (1) A district school board that admits nonresident students by giving con-
6 sent as described in ORS 339.133 (5)(a) may not consider race, religion, sex, sexual orien-
7 tation, ethnicity, national origin, disability, health, whether a student has an individualized
8 education program, the terms of an individualized education program, income level, resi-
9 dence, proficiency in the English language, athletic ability or academic records when:

10 (a) Determining whether to give consent; or

11 (b) Establishing any terms of consent.

12 (2) A district school board that is considering whether to admit a nonresident student 13 by giving consent may require only the following information prior to deciding whether to 14 give consent:

15 (a) The name, contact information, date of birth and grade level of the student; and

16 (b) Information about whether the school district may be prevented or otherwise limited
17 from providing consent as provided by ORS 339.115 (8).

18 (3)(a) A district school board that is considering whether to admit a nonresident student 19 by giving consent may not:

20 (A) Request or require any person to provide or have provided any of the following in-

1 tional origin, disability, health, whether a student has an individualized education program,
2 the terms of an individualized education program, income level, residence, proficiency in the
3 English language or athletic ability; or

4 (ii) Academic records, including eligibility for or participation in a talented and gifted
5 program or special education and related services.

6 (B) Request or require the student to participate in an interview, to tour any of the 7 schools or facilities of the school district or to otherwise meet with any representatives of 8 a school or a school district prior to the district school board deciding whether to give con-
9 sent to the student.

10 (C) Request any information used to supplement the information described in subsection
11 (2) of this section prior to deciding whether to give consent to the student.

12 (b) Nothing in this subsection prevents a student from voluntarily touring any of the 13 schools or facilities of a school district or from requesting or receiving any information from 14 a school or the school district.

15 (4)(a) A district school board that admits nonresident students by giving consent as de-
16 scribed in ORS 339.133 (5)(a) may limit the number of students to whom consent is given.
17 The district school board must make the determination whether to limit the number of stu-
18 dents to whom consent is given by an annual date established by the board.

19 (b) If the number of students seeking admission exceeds any limitations imposed by the 20 district school board, the board must admit nonresident students based on an equitable lot-
21 tery selection process. The process may give priority to students who have siblings currently 22 enrolled in a school of the school district.

23 (c) A district school board may revise the maximum number of students to whom con-
24 sent will be given at a time other than the annual date established by the board if there are 25 no pending applications for consent.

26 (5) A district school board that is requested to give consent to allow a resident student
27 to be admitted by another school district as described in ORS 339.133 (5)(a) may not consider 28 race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, ethnicity, national origin, disability, health, whether 29 a student has an individualized education program, the terms of an individualized education
30 program, income level, residence, proficiency in the English language, athletic ability or ac-
31 ademic records when determining whether to give consent.

32 (6) If a district school board decides to not give consent to a student, the board must 33 provide a written explanation to the student.

34 (7) A district school board that gives consent as provided by ORS 339.133 (5)(a) may de-
35 termine the length of time for which consent is given. Any limitations in length of time must 36 be applied consistently among all students to whom consent is given.

37 (8) Nothing in this section:

38 (a) Requires a district school board to admit siblings if the board imposes limitations on 39 the number of students admitted by consent.

40 (b) Prevents a district school board from denying admission to a nonresident student as 41 provided by ORS 339.115 (8).

42 (c) Prevents a district school board from requesting information or giving consent to a 43 student in the event of an emergency to protect the health, safety or welfare of the student.

44 (d) Prevents a district school board from establishing minimum standards for behavior
45 and attendance that a student must maintain to remain enrolled in the schools of the school

1 district.

2 SECTION 2. (1) Section 1 of this 2013 Act first applies to:

3 (a) Nonresident students who seek admission for the 2014-2015 school year; and

4 (b) State School Fund distributions commencing with the 2014-2015 distributions.

5 (2) Nothing in section 1 of this 2013 Act affects the status of a nonresident student who
6 was admitted as provided by ORS 339.125 or 339.133 (5)(a) prior to the 2014-2015 school year.

7 SECTION 3. Section 1 of this 2013 Act is amended to read:

8 Sec. 1. (1) A district school board that admits nonresident students by giving consent as de-
9 scribed in ORS 339.133 (5)[(a)] may not consider race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, ethnicity, 10 national origin, disability, health, whether a student has an individualized education program, the 11 terms of an individualized education program, income level, residence, proficiency in the English 12 language, athletic ability or academic records when:

13 (a) Determining whether to give consent; or

14 (b) Establishing any terms of consent.

15 (2) A district school board that is considering whether to admit a nonresident student by giving 16 consent may require only the following information prior to deciding whether to give consent:

17 (a) The name, contact information, date of birth and grade level of the student; and

18 (b) Information about whether the school district may be prevented or otherwise limited from 19 providing consent as provided by ORS 339.115 (8).

20 (3)(a) A district school board that is considering whether to admit a nonresident student by 21 giving consent may not:

22 (A) Request or require any person to provide or have provided any of the following information
23 related to a student prior to the district school board deciding whether to give consent to the stu-
24 dent:

25 (i) Information about the student's race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, ethnicity, national or-26 igin, disability, health, whether a student has an individualized education program, the terms of an 27 individualized education program, income level, residence, proficiency in the English language or 28 athletic ability; or

29 (ii) Academic records, including eligibility for or participation in a talented and gifted program 30 or special education and related services.

31 (B) Request or require the student to participate in an interview, to tour any of the schools or 32 facilities of the school district or to otherwise meet with any representatives of a school or a school
33 district prior to the district school board deciding whether to give consent to the student.

34 (C) Request any information used to supplement the information described in subsection (2) of 35 this section prior to deciding whether to give consent to the student.

36 (b) Nothing in this subsection prevents a student from voluntarily touring any of the schools or 37 facilities of a school district or from requesting or receiving any information from a school or the 38 school district.

39 (4)(a) A district school board that admits nonresident students by giving consent as described 40 in ORS 339.133 (5)[(a)] may limit the number of students to whom consent is given. The district
41 school board must make the determination whether to limit the number of students to whom consent
42 is given by an annual date established by the board.

43 (b) If the number of students seeking admission exceeds any limitations imposed by the district
44 school board, the board must admit nonresident students based on an equitable lottery selection
45 process. The process may give priority to students who have siblings currently enrolled in a school

1 of the school district.

2 (c) A district school board may revise the maximum number of students to whom consent will
3 be given at a time other than the annual date established by the board if there are no pending ap-
4 plications for consent.

5 (5) A district school board that is requested to give consent to allow a resident student to be 6 admitted by another school district as described in ORS 339.133 (5)(a) may not consider race, reli-
7 gion, sex, sexual orientation, ethnicity, national origin, disability, health, whether a student has an 8 individualized education program, the terms of an individualized education program, income level,
9 residence, proficiency in the English language, athletic ability or academic records when determin-
10 ing whether to give consent.

11 (6) If a district school board decides to not give consent to a student, the board must provide 12 a written explanation to the student.

13 (7) A district school board that gives consent as provided by ORS 339.133 (5)(a) may determine
14 the length of time for which consent is given. Any limitations in length of time must be applied 15 consistently among all students to whom consent is given.

16 (8) Nothing in this section:

17 (a) Requires a district school board to admit siblings if the board imposes limitations on the 18 number of students admitted by consent.

19 (b) Prevents a district school board from denying admission to a nonresident student as provided 20 by ORS 339.115 (8).

21 (c) Prevents a district school board from requesting information or giving consent to a student
22 in the event of an emergency to protect the health, safety or welfare of the student.

23 (d) Prevents a district school board from establishing minimum standards for behavior and at-24 tendance that a student must maintain to remain enrolled in the schools of the school district.

25 SECTION 4. Section 20, chapter 718, Oregon Laws 2011, is amended to read:

26 Sec. 20. (1) The amendments to ORS 327.006, 329.485, 332.405, 339.115, 339.134 and 343.151 by 27 sections 11 to 14, 17 and 18 [of this 2011 Act], chapter 718, Oregon Laws 2011, become operative
28 on January 1, 2012.

29 (2) The amendments to ORS 339.133 by section 19 [of this 2011 Act], chapter 718, Oregon Laws
30 2011, and the amendments to section 1 of this 2013 Act by section 3 of this 2013 Act become 31 operative on July 1, 2017.

32 (3) The amendments to ORS 339.133 by section 19 [of this 2011 Act], chapter 718, Oregon Laws
33 2011, first apply to the 2017-2018 school year.

34 SECTION 5. (1) A district school board that admits nonresident students and charges
35 nonresident students tuition may not consider race, religion, sex, sexual orientation,
36 ethnicity, national origin, disability, health, whether a student has an individualized educa-
37 tion program, the terms of an individualized education program, income level, residence, 38 proficiency in the English language, athletic ability or academic records when:

39 (a) Determining whether to accept a nonresident student; or 40 (b) Establishing the amount of tuition.

41 (2) A district school board that admits nonresident students and charges nonresident
42 students tuition may require a student seeking to attend the schools of the school district
43 to provide the following information:

44 (a) The name, contact information, date of birth and grade level of the student; and

45 (b) Information about whether the school district may be prevented or otherwise limited

1 from admitting the student as provided by ORS 339.115 (8).

2 (3)(a) A district school board that admits nonresident students and charges nonresident
3 students tuition may not:

4 (A) Request or require any person to provide or have provided any of the following in-
5 formation related to a student prior to the district school board deciding whether to admit 6 the student:

7 (i) Information about the student's race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, ethnicity, na-
8 tional origin, disability, health, whether a student has an individualized education program,
9 the terms of an individualized education program, income level, residence, proficiency in the 10 English language or athletic ability; or

11 (ii) Academic records, including eligibility for or participation in a talented and gifted
12 program or special education and related services.

13 (B) Request or require the student to participate in an interview, to tour any of the 14 schools or facilities of the school district or to otherwise meet with any representatives of 15 a school or a school district prior to the district school board deciding whether to admit the 16 student.

17 (C) Request any information used to supplement the information described in subsection
18 (2) of this section prior to deciding whether to admit the student.

19 (b) Nothing in this subsection prevents a student from voluntarily touring any of the 20 schools or facilities of a school district or from requesting or receiving any information from 21 a school or the school district.

22 (4) If a district school board decides to deny admission to a nonresident student and to 23 charge the nonresident student tuition, the board must provide a written explanation to the 24 student.

25 (5) Nothing in this section:

26 (a) Prevents a district school board from denying admission to a nonresident student as 27 provided by ORS 339.115 (8).

28 (b) Prevents a district school board from requesting information or admitting a student
29 in the event of an emergency to protect the health, safety or welfare of the student.

30 (c) Prevents a district school board from establishing minimum standards for behavior
31 and attendance that a student must maintain to remain enrolled in the schools of the school
32 district.

33 SECTION 6. (1) Section 5 of this 2013 Act first applies to:

34 (a) Nonresident students who seek admission for the 2014-2015 school year; and

35 (b) State School Fund distributions commencing with the 2014-2015 distributions.

36 (2) Nothing in section 5 of this 2013 Act affects the status of a nonresident student who
37 was admitted as provided by ORS 339.125 or 339.133 (5)(a) prior to the 2014-2015 school year.

38 SECTION 7. Section 8 of this 2013 Act is added to and made a part of ORS chapter 343.

39 SECTION 8. (1) As used in this section:

40 (a) "Long term care facility" has the meaning given that term in ORS 442.015.

41 (b) "Skilled nursing facility" has the meaning given that term in ORS 442.015.

42 (2)(a) Notwithstanding ORS 339.133 and 339.134, a student who is admitted to a long term
43 care facility or a skilled nursing facility shall be considered a resident of the school district
44 in which the long term care facility or skilled nursing facility is located.

45 (b) The school district of which the student is a resident as provided by paragraph (a)

1 of this subsection is responsible for providing educational services to the student in the least 2 restrictive environment in which the student can be educated.

3 (3) When a student is discharged from a long term care facility or a skilled nursing fa-
4 cility:

5 (a) The residency of the student shall be determined as provided by ORS 339.133 and 6 339.134; and

7 (b) The responsibilities imposed by subsection (2)(b) of this section terminate and become 8 the responsibilities of the school district of which the student is a resident.

9 SECTION 9. Section 8 of this 2013 Act first applies to the 2013-2014 school year.

10 SECTION 10. Section 8 of this 2013 Act is repealed on June 30, 2014.

11 SECTION 11. Any distributions of State School Fund moneys made before the effective
12 date of this 2013 Act to a school district for a nonresident student admitted to a long term
13 care facility or a skilled nursing facility located within the boundaries of the school district 14 are validated and approved.

15 SECTION 12. This 2013 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public
16 peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2013 Act takes effect
17 July 1, 2013.
