8 (3) When a person who is a sex offender is released on probation, the court shall impose as a 9 special condition of probation that the person not reside in any dwelling in which another sex 10 offender who is on probation, parole or post-prison supervision resides, without the approval of the 11 person's supervising parole and probation officer, or in which more than one other sex offender who 12 is on probation, parole or post-prison supervision resides, without the approval of the director of the 13 probation agency that is supervising the person or of the county manager of the Department of 14 Corrections, or a designee of the director or manager. As soon as practicable, the supervising parole 15 and probation officer of a person subject to the requirements of this subsection shall review the

29 required to reside in that county;

30 (B) The person demonstrates to the court by a preponderance of the evidence that no mental

32 (C) The person demonstrates to the court by a preponderance of the evidence that imposition 33 of the condition will deprive the person of a residence that would be materially significant in aiding 34 in the rehabilitation of the person or in the success of the probation; or

35 (D) The person resides in a halfway house. As used in this subparagraph, "halfway house" means 36 a publicly or privately operated profit or nonprofit residential facility that provides rehabilitative 37 care and treatment for sex offenders.

38 (b) A victim may request imposition of the special condition of probation described in this sub-39 section at the time of sentencing in person or through the prosecuting attorney.

40 (c) If the court imposes the special condition of probation described in this subsection and if at 41 any time during the period of probation the victim moves to within three miles of the probationer's

2 county sheriff's office of the county in which the person is going to reside of the person's release
3 and the conditions of the person's release.

4 (6) Failure to abide by all general and special conditions [imposed by the court and supervised
5 by the Department of Corrections or a county community corrections agency] of probation may result 6 in arrest, modification of conditions, revocation of probation or imposition of structured, intermedi-
7 ate sanctions in accordance with rules adopted under ORS 137.595.

8 (7) The court may order that probation be supervised by the court. If the court orders that 9 probation be supervised by the court, the defendant shall pay a fee of $100 to the court. Fees im-10 posed under this subsection in the circuit court shall be deposited by the clerk of the court in the 11 General Fund. Fees imposed in a justice court under this subsection shall be paid to the county
12 treasurer. Fees imposed in a municipal court under this subsection shall be paid to the city treas-13 urer.

14 (8)(a) The court may at any time modify the conditions of probation.

15 (b) When the court orders a defendant placed under the supervision of the Department

17 court a proposed modification to the special conditions of probation. The supervising officer 18 shall provide a copy of the proposed modification to the district attorney and the probationer.
19 If the district attorney:

20 (A) Files an objection to the proposed modification less than five judicial days after the 21 proposed modification was filed, the court shall schedule a hearing no later than 10 judicial 22 days after the proposed modification was filed, unless the court finds good cause to schedule
23 a hearing at a later time.

24 (B) Does not file an objection to the proposed modification less than five judicial days 25 after the proposed modification was filed, the proposed modification becomes effective five 26 judicial days after the proposed modification was filed.

27 (9) A court may not order revocation of probation as a result of the probationer's failure to pay 28 restitution unless the court determines from the totality of the circumstances that the purposes of 29 the probation are not being served.

30 (10) It is not a cause for revocation of probation that the probationer failed to apply for or ac-
31 cept employment at any workplace where there is a labor dispute in progress. As used in this sub-32 section, "labor dispute" has the meaning for that term provided in ORS 662.010.

33 (11) If the court determines that a defendant has violated the terms of probation, the court shall 34 collect a $25 fee from the defendant. The fee becomes part of the judgment and may be collected in 35 the same manner as a fine. Fees collected under this subsection in the circuit court shall be depos-36 ited by the clerk of the court in the General Fund. Fees collected in a justice court under this 37 subsection shall be paid to the county treasurer. Fees collected in a municipal court under this 38 subsection shall be paid to the city treasurer.

39 (12) As used in this section, "attends," "institution of higher education," "works" and "carries
