10 “SECTION 54. ORS 90.396 is amended to read:

11 “90.396. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, after at least 24 hours’ written 12 notice specifying the acts and omissions constituting the cause and specifying the date and time of 13 the termination, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement and take possession as provided 14 in ORS 105.105 to 105.168, if:

15 “(a) The tenant, someone in the tenant’s control or the tenant’s pet seriously threatens to inflict
16 substantial personal injury, or inflicts any substantial personal injury, upon a person on the prem-
17 ises other than the tenant;

18 “(b) The tenant or someone in the tenant’s control recklessly endangers a person on the prem-
19 ises other than the tenant by creating a serious risk of substantial personal injury;

20 “(c) The tenant, someone in the tenant’s control or the tenant’s pet inflicts any substantial
21 personal injury upon a neighbor living in the immediate vicinity of the premises;

22 “(d) The tenant or someone in the tenant’s control intentionally inflicts any substantial damage
23 to the premises or the tenant’s pet inflicts substantial damage to the premises on more than one 24 occasion;

25 “(e)(A) The tenant intentionally provided substantial false information on the application for the 26 tenancy within the past year;

27 “(B) The false information was with regard to a criminal conviction of the tenant that would 28 have been material to the landlord’s acceptance of the application; and

29 “(C) The landlord terminates the rental agreement within 30 days after discovering the falsity
30 of the information; or

31 “(f) The tenant, someone in the tenant’s control or the tenant’s pet commits any act that is 32 outrageous in the extreme, on the premises or in the immediate vicinity of the premises. For pur-
33 poses of this paragraph, an act is outrageous in the extreme if the act is not described in paragraphs 34 (a) to (e) of this subsection, but is similar in degree and is one that a reasonable person in that
35 community would consider to be so offensive as to warrant termination of the tenancy within 24
36 hours, considering the seriousness of the act or the risk to others. An act that is outrageous in the 37 extreme is more extreme or serious than an act that warrants a 30-day termination under ORS
38 90.392. Acts that are ‘outrageous in the extreme’ include, but are not limited to, the following acts
39 by a person:

40 “(A) Prostitution, patronizing a prostitute or promoting prostitution, as described in ORS
41 167.007, 167.008 and 167.012;

42 “(B) Manufacture, delivery or possession of a controlled substance, as described in ORS 475.005,
43 but not including[.]

44 “[i] The medical use of marijuana in compliance with ORS 475.300 to 475.346;]

45 “[ii] Possession of, or delivery for no consideration of, less than one avoirdupois ounce of

1 marijuana as described in ORS 475.860 (3) or 475.864 (3); or]

2 [(iii)] possession of prescription drugs;

3 [(C)] Intimidation, as described in ORS 166.155 and 166.165; or 4 [(D)] Burglary as described in ORS 164.215 and 164.225.

5 [(2)] If the cause for a termination notice given pursuant to subsection (1) of this section is based 6 upon the acts of the tenant's pet, the tenant may cure the cause and avoid termination of the 7 tenancy by removing the pet from the premises prior to the end of the notice period. The notice
8 must describe the right of the tenant to cure the cause. If the tenant returns the pet to the premises
9 at any time after having cured the violation, the landlord, after at least 24 hours' written notice
10 specifying the subsequent presence of the offending pet, may terminate the rental agreement and 11 take possession as provided in ORS 105.105 to 105.168. The tenant does not have a right to cure this 12 subsequent violation.

13 [(3)] For purposes of subsection (1) of this section, someone is in the tenant's control if that
14 person enters or remains on the premises with the tenant's permission or consent after the tenant
15 reasonably knows or should know of that person's act or likelihood to commit any act of the type
16 described in subsection (1) of this section.

17 [(4)] An act can be proven to be outrageous in the extreme even if the act is one that does not
18 violate a criminal statute. Notwithstanding the references to criminal statutes in subsection (1)(f)
19 of this section, the landlord's burden of proof in an action for possession under subsection (1) of this 20 section is the civil standard of proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

21 [(5)] If a good faith effort by a landlord to terminate the tenancy under subsection (1)(f) of this
22 section and to recover possession of the rental unit under ORS 105.105 to 105.168 fails by decision
23 of the court, the landlord may not be found in violation of any state statute or local ordinance re-
24 quiring the landlord to remove that tenant upon threat of fine, abatement or forfeiture as long as 25 the landlord continues to make a good faith effort to terminate the tenancy.

26 SECTION 55. ORS 453.858 is amended to read:
