The leases may grant the trustee or lender the right to evict the university and exclude the university from possession of the real property for the term of the lease if the university fails to pay when due the amounts scheduled to be paid under the operative documents or otherwise defaults under the operative documents. Upon default, the trustee or lender may sublease the real property to third parties and apply any rents to payments scheduled to be made under the operative documents.

The schedule must include amounts sufficient to pay principal, interest and premium, if any, on the state bonds, and to pay administrative and other costs of the State of Oregon that are related to the state bonds or other obligations. If the State Treasurer issues state bonds for the benefit of a university with a governing board on or after the effective date of this 2013 Act that are intended to be repaid in whole or in part by university revenues or other moneys under the control of the university, the schedule shall be amended to include such state bonds and the amounts to be paid by the university. (5) Moneys deposited with the State Treasurer, the Controller of the Oregon University System or the Oregon Department of Administrative Services in a debt service reserve account or otherwise for the portion of the debt service associated with obligations entered into before the effective date of this 2013 Act for the benefit of a university with a governing board must remain with the State Treasurer, the Controller of the Oregon University System or the Oregon Department of Administrative Services until the obligations have been retired or defeased. Earnings on moneys described in this subsection must be credited to the account or fund in which the moneys are held.

(7) Pursuant to ORS chapter 180, on behalf of the State Treasurer or any other state agency, the Attorney General shall appear, commence, prosecute or defend any action, suit, matter, cause or proceeding arising from any state bond issued for the benefit of a university with a governing board and any related credit enhancement device or interest rate exchange agreement. As soon as practicable after a governing board is established by a university pursuant to section 3 of this 2013 Act, the university with a governing board and the State Treasurer shall enter into an agreement that addresses reimbursement of reasonable costs and expenses associated with the legal representation of the State Treasurer in connection with state bonds issued for the benefit of the university with a governing board before, on or after the effective date of this 2013 Act and any other topic necessary for the Department of Justice to provide legal representation to the State Treasurer in connection with state bonds issued for the benefit of the university with a governing board and to provide representation related to funds and accounts or services provided under section 15 of this 2013 Act.

(8) A university with a governing board shall assume responsibility, in accordance with agreements entered into with the Department of Justice and the State Treasurer, for the indemnity and defense of university officers, agents and employees with regard to, as applicable, claims asserted and actions commenced in connection with state bonds issued for the benefit of the university with a governing board.

(A) Inform the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Legislative Counsel of that the university will become a university with a governing board; and

(B) Not later than six months after receiving the notification, appoint all of the members of the governing board in the manner set forth in section 6 of this 2013 Act.

(3) Notwithstanding section 169 of this 2013 Act, if Eastern Oregon University, Oregon Institute of Technology, Southern Oregon University or Western Oregon University become a university with a governing board under subsection (2) of this section, the president of that university shall take over administrative responsibilities for the university from the State Board of Higher Education on either July 1, 2015 or when the Governor appoints the members of the governing board, whichever date comes later.

SECTION 169. Except as provided in section 168a of this 2013 Act, the State Board of Higher Education shall continue to have jurisdiction over the operations of a university with a governing board as defined in section 2 of this 2013 Act through June 30, 2014. However, the governing board shall propose funding requests pursuant to section 8 of this 2013 Act and ORS 351.052, as amended by section 42 of this 2013 Act, and shall prepare budgets, in cooperation with the Higher Education Coordinating Commission, for the biennium beginning July 1, 2015.

SECTION 170. (1) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this section, all persons employed by a university with a governing board, as defined in section 2 of this 2013 Act, on the effective date of this 2013 Act shall continue their employment with the university and shall retain any seniority, contractual rights or tenure granted prior to the effective date of this 2013 Act. Nothing in this section shall affect any term or condition of any collective bargaining agreement in effect on the effective date of this 2013 Act.

(2) All of the duties, functions, powers and lawfully incurred rights and obligations of the State Board of Higher Education that pertain to a university with a governing board are transferred to and vested in the governing board. The transfer shall include but not be limited to all applicable contractual rights and obligations and title to all applicable records, property, supplies and materials, including equipment, books and papers. For the purpose of succession to these rights and obligations, the governing board is considered to be a continuation of the State Board of Higher Education and not a new authority, and the governing board must exercise such rights and fulfill such obligations as if they had not been assigned or transferred, except as otherwise provided by law.

(3) All unexpended moneys, including but not limited to General Fund appropriations, gifts, bequests, other funds, assessments, liability and worker's compensation reserves and premiums that are appropriated to, held, managed or invested by or on behalf of or otherwise available to a university with a governing board, are appropriated and transferred to the university.

(4) A university with a governing board shall conduct and complete any proceeding, action, prosecution or other matter that the university commenced before the effective date of this 2013 Act and that is pending on the effective date of this 2013 Act.

(5) The transfer of duties, functions and powers to a governing board or university with a governing board does not affect any action, suit or proceeding relating to the university, except that the university shall be substituted for the State Board of Higher Education and the State of Oregon in any such action, suit or proceeding.

(6) Any action, proceeding or other matter that was commenced by a state agency, a state officer, the State Board of Higher Education or an officer or employee of the State Board of Higher Education before the effective date of this 2013 Act and relates to the governing board or university with a governing board and is still pending on the effective date of this 2013 Act shall be conducted and completed by the governing board or university.

(7) Nothing in this 2013 Act relieves any person, public entity or private entity of any obligation with respect to a tax, fee, fine or other charge, interest, penalty, forfeiture, rule, policy, document, record or proceeding.

(8) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the lawfully adopted rules and policies of the State Board of Higher Education pertaining to a university with a governing board that are in effect on the effective date of this 2013 Act continue in effect until lawfully superseded or repealed by the standards or policies of the governing board or the university. References in rules or policies of the State Board of Higher Education to the state board or an officer or employee of the state board are considered to be references to the governing board or an officer or employee of a university with a governing board.

SECTION 171. Sections 2, 2a, 2b, 3, 5, 8 to 18, 164, 165, 169 and 170 of this 2013 Act, the amendments to statutes and session laws by sections 24, 25, 28 to 37, 40 to 162 and 176 to 178 of this 2013 Act and the repeal of statutes by section 163 of this 2013 Act become operative on July 1, 2014.

SECTION 172. The State Board of Higher Education and a university with a governing board as defined in section 2 of this 2013 Act may take any action before the operative date specified in section 171 of this 2013 Act that is necessary for the State Board of Higher Education and the university to exercise, on and after the operative date specified in section 171 of this 2013 Act, all of the duties, functions and powers conferred on the State Board of Higher Education and university by this 2013 Act.

SECTION 172a. This 2013 Act is intended to preserve the autonomy of the universities listed in ORS 352.002 whether they are governed by a university governing board or a university consortium board.
