A BILL FOR AN ACT

1
2 Relating to assistance animals; creating new provisions; amending ORS 167.352, 346.687, 346.991,
3 609.105 and 659A.400; repealing ORS 346.610, 346.620, 346.630, 346.640, 346.650, 346.660, 346.680,
4 346.685 and 346.690; and declaring an emergency.

5 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

6 SECTION 1. Sections 2 and 3 of this 2013 Act are added to and made a part of ORS
7 659A.103 to 659A.145.

8 SECTION 1a. ORS 346.687 is added to and made a part of ORS chapter 659.

9 SECTION 2. As used in this section and section 3 of this 2013 Act:

10 (1) "Assistance animal" means a dog or other animal designated by administrative rule 11 that has been individually trained to perform tasks for the benefit of an individual.

12 (2) "Assistance animal trainee" means an animal that is undergoing a course of devel-
13 opment and training to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual that directly 14 relate to the disability of the individual.

15 (3) "Assistance animal trainer" means an individual exercising care, custody and control
16 over an assistance animal trainee during a course of training designed to develop the trainee 17 into an assistance animal.

18 (4) "Place of public accommodation" means a place of public accommodation as defined

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 in ORS 659A.400.

2 SECTION 3. (1) A place of public accommodation or of access to state government ser-
3 vices, programs or activities may not:

4 (a) Ask an individual about the nature or extent of a disability that the individual has 5 or may have;

6 (b) Require an individual to provide documentation proving that an animal is an assist-7 ance animal or an assistance animal trainee; or

8 (c) Notwithstanding any fee or admission charge imposed for pets, require that a person 9 with a disability or an assistance animal trainer pay a fee or admission charge for an as-10 sistance animal or assistance animal trainee.

11 (2) A place of public accommodation or of access to state government services, programs
12 or activities may:

13 (a) Ask whether an animal is required due to a disability; and

14 (b) Ask about the nature of the work or task that an animal is trained to do or perform 15 or is being trained to do or perform, unless it is readily apparent that the animal performs 16 or is being trained to perform work or a task for the benefit of a person with a disability.

17 (3) If a place of public accommodation or of access to state government services, pro-
18 grams or activities customarily charges a person for damages that the person causes to the 19 place, the place may charge a person with a disability or an assistance animal trainer for 20 damages that an assistance animal or assistance animal trainee causes to the place.

21 (4) A person with a disability or an assistance animal trainer must maintain control of 22 an assistance animal or assistance animal trainee. Except as provided in this subsection,
23 control shall be exerted by means of a harness, leash or other tether. If the use of a harness,
24 leash or other tether would interfere with the ability of the animal to do the work or perform 25 the tasks for which the animal is trained or is being trained, control may be exerted by the 26 effective use of voice commands, signals or other means. If an animal is not under control 27 as required in this subsection, a place of public accommodation or of access to state gov-28 ernment services, programs or activities may consider the animal to be out of control for 29 purposes of subsection (5) of this section.

30 (5) Except as provided in this subsection, a place of public accommodation or of access
31 to state government services, programs or activities may not deny a person with a disability 32 or an assistance animal trainer the right to be accompanied by an assistance animal or as-
33 sistance animal trainee in any area of the place that is open to the public or to business
34 invitees. A place of public accommodation or of access to state government services, pro-35 grams or activities may require a person with a disability or an assistance animal trainer to 36 remove an assistance animal or assistance animal trainee if:

37 (a) The animal is not housebroken; or

38 (b) The animal is out of control and effective action is not taken to control the animal.

39 (6) A place of public accommodation or of access to state government services, programs
40 or activities shall make reasonable modifications as necessary to allow an opportunity for a 41 person with a disability who is benefited by the use of an assistance animal to obtain goods,
42 services and the use of the advantages, facilities and privileges of the place or the advan-
43 tages, facilities and privileges of the state government services, programs or activities. For 44 purposes of this subsection, except as provided in subsections (5) and (7) of this section, in 45 addition to any other applicable accommodation requirement, allowing the presence of the 1 assistance animal is a reasonable modification.

2 (7) If a place of public accommodation or of access to state government services, pro-
3 grams or activities requires a person with a disability to remove an assistance animal under 4 subsection (5) of this section, the place shall give the person with a disability a reasonable
5 opportunity to obtain goods, services and the use of the advantages, facilities and privileges
6 of the place or the advantages, facilities and privileges of the state government services,
7 programs or activities without the assistance animal's presence.

8 (8) A place of public accommodation or of access to state government services, programs
9 or activities is not required to provide care or supervision for an assistance animal or as-10 sistance animal trainee.

11 (9) The protection granted under this section to a person with a disability or an assist-12 ance animal trainer does not invalidate or limit the remedies, rights and procedures of any 13 other federal, state or local laws that provide equal or greater protection of the rights of a 14 person with a disability, an assistance animal trainer or individuals associated with a person 15 with a disability.

16 SECTION 4. ORS 167.352 is amended to read:

17 167.352. (1) A person commits the crime of interfering with an assistance, a search and rescue 18 or a therapy animal if the person intentionally or knowingly:

19 (a) Injures or attempts to injure an animal the person knows or reasonably should know is an 20 assistance animal, a search and rescue animal or a therapy animal;

21 (b) Interferes with an assistance animal while the assistance animal is being used to provide 22 assistance to a person with a [physical impairment] disability; or

23 (c) Interferes with a search and rescue animal or a therapy animal while the animal is being 24 used for search and rescue or therapy purposes.

25 [(2) As used in this section, "assistance animal" and "person with a physical impairment" have the 26 meanings given those terms in ORS 346.680.]

27 (2) As used in this section, "assistance animal" has the meaning given that term in sec-
28 tion 2 of this 2013 Act.

29 (3) As used in this section and ORS 30.822:

30 (a) "Search and rescue animal" means that the animal has been professionally trained for, and 31 is actively used for, search and rescue purposes.

32 (b) "Therapy animal" means [that the animal] an animal other than an assistance animal that 33 has been professionally trained for, and is actively used for, therapy purposes.

34 (4) Interfering with an assistance, a search and rescue or a therapy animal is a Class A 35 misdemeanor.

36 SECTION 5. ORS 346.687 is amended to read:

37 346.687. (1) In addition to and not in lieu of any other penalty provided by state law, a person
38 with a [physical impairment] disability who uses an assistance animal or the owner of an assistance
39 animal may bring an action for economic and noneconomic damages against any person who steals 40 or, without provocation, attacks the assistance animal. The person with a [physical impairment or]
41 disability or the owner may also bring an action for such damages against the owner of any animal
42 that, without provocation, attacks an assistance animal. The action authorized by this subsection 43 may be brought by the person with a [physical impairment or] disability or the owner even if the 44 assistance animal was in the custody or under the supervision of another person when the theft or 45 attack occurred.

1 (2) If the theft of or unprovoked attack on an assistance animal described in subsection (1) of
2 this section results in the death of the animal or the animal is not returned or if injuries sustained
3 in the theft or attack prevent the animal from returning to service as an assistance animal, the 4 measure of economic damages shall include, but need not be limited to, the replacement value of an 5 equally trained assistance animal, without any differentiation for the age or the experience of the 6 animal. In addition, the person with a [physical impairment or] disability or the owner may recover
7 any other costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, costs of temporary replacement assist-8 ance services, whether provided by another assistance animal or a person, incurred as a result of 9 the theft of or injury to the animal.

10 (3) If the theft of or unprovoked attack on an assistance animal described in subsection (1) of 11 this section results in injuries from which the animal recovers and returns to service, or if the an-12 imal is stolen but is recovered and returns to service, the measure of economic damages shall in-13 clude, but need not be limited to, the veterinary medical expenses, costs of temporary replacement
14 assistance services, whether provided by another assistance animal or a person, and any other costs
15 and expenses incurred by the person with a [physical impairment or] disability or the owner as a 16 result of the theft of or injury to the animal.

17 (4) A cause of action does not arise under this section if the person with a [physical
18 impairment,] disability, the owner or the person having custody or supervision of the assistance 19 animal was committing a criminal or civil trespass at the time of the theft of or attack on the as-20 sistance animal.

21 (5) The court shall award reasonable attorney fees to the prevailing plaintiff in an action under 22 this section. The court may award reasonable attorney fees and expert witness fees incurred by a 23 defendant who prevails in the action if the court determines that the plaintiff had no objectively 24 reasonable basis for asserting a claim or no objectively reasonable basis for appealing an adverse 25 decision of a trial court.

26 (6) As used in this section, “assistance animal” has the meaning given that term in sec-
27 tion 2 of this 2013 Act.

28 SECTION 6. ORS 609.105 is amended to read:

29 609.105. Notwithstanding ORS 609.015 or 609.100, a county or city shall not charge a fee to li-
30 cense a dog used as an assistance animal as defined in [ORS 346.680] section 2 of this 2013 Act.

31 SECTION 7. ORS 346.991 is amended to read:

32 346.991. Violation of ORS 346.167[, 346.620 (1) or (2), 346.650 or 346.660 or any of the provisions
33 of ORS 346.680 to 346.690] is a Class C misdemeanor.

34 SECTION 8. ORS 659A.400 is amended to read:

35 659A.400. (1) A place of public accommodation, subject to the exclusion in subsection (2) of this 36 section, means any place or service offering to the public accommodations, advantages, facilities or 37 privileges whether in the nature of goods, services, lodgings, amusements, transportation or oth-38 erwise.

39 (2) However, a place of public accommodation does not include any institution, bona fide club 40 or place of accommodation which is in its nature distinctly private.

41 SECTION 9. ORS 346.610, 346.620, 346.630, 346.640, 346.650, 346.660, 346.680, 346.685 and 42 346.690 are repealed.

43 SECTION 10. (1) Sections 2 and 3 of this 2013 Act, the amendments to ORS 167.352,
44 346.687, 346.991, 609.105 and 659A.400 by sections 4 to 8 of this 2013 Act and the repeal of ORS 45 346.610, 346.620, 346.630, 346.640, 346.650, 346.660, 346.680, 346.685 and 346.690 by section 9 of

1 this 2013 Act apply to events occurring on or after the effective date of this 2013 Act.
2 Sections 2 and 3 of this 2013 Act, the amendments to ORS 346.687 and 346.991 by sections 5
3 and 7 of this 2013 Act and the repeal of ORS 346.610, 346.620, 346.630, 346.640, 346.650, 346.660,
4 346.680, 346.685 and 346.690 by section 9 of this 2013 Act do not affect any cause of action for 5 violations of ORS 346.620, 346.630, 346.650, 346.660, 346.685 or 346.690 occurring prior to the 6 effective date of this 2013 Act or any action to recover damages under ORS 346.687 based on 7 actions occurring prior to the effective date of this 2013 Act.

8 (2) A violation of ORS 167.352 occurring prior to the effective date of this 2013 Act is 9 subject to prosecution to the extent provided under ORS 167.352 as set forth in the 2011
10 Edition of Oregon Revised Statutes.

11 (3) A county or city is not required to refund a license fee charged to a person prior to 12 the effective date of this 2013 Act for an assistance animal that was not exempt from li-
13 censing fees under ORS 609.105 as set forth in the 2011 Edition of Oregon Revised Statutes.

14 SECTION 11. This 2013 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public
15 peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2013 Act takes effect 16 on its passage.
