4 SECTION 3. ORS 40.210 is amended to read:

8 (a) Reputation or opinion evidence of the past sexual behavior of an alleged victim of the crime 9 or a corroborating witness; or 10 (b) Reputation or opinion evidence presented for the purpose of showing that the manner of 11 dress of an alleged victim of the crime incited the crime or indicated consent to the sexual acts al-12 leged in the charge.

13 (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in a prosecution for a crime described in ORS 14 163.355 to 163.427, or in a prosecution for an attempt to commit one of these crimes, evidence of a 15 victim's past sexual behavior other than reputation or opinion evidence is also not admissible, unless 16 the evidence other than reputation or opinion evidence:

17 (a) Is admitted in accordance with subsection (4) of this section; and

18 (b) Is evidence that:

19 (A) Relates to the motive or bias of the alleged victim;

20 (B) Is necessary to rebut or explain scientific or medical evidence offered by the state; or 21 (C) Is otherwise constitutionally required to be admitted.

22 (3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in a prosecution for a crime described in ORS 23 163.355 to 163.427, or in a prosecution for an attempt to commit one of these crimes, evidence, other 24 than reputation or opinion evidence, of the manner of dress of the alleged victim or a corroborating 25 witness, presented by a person accused of committing the crime, is also not admissible, unless the 26 evidence is:

27 (a) Admitted in accordance with subsection (4) of this section; and

28 (b) Is evidence that:

29 (A) Relates to the motive or bias of the alleged victim;

30 (B) Is necessary to rebut or explain scientific, medical or testimonial evidence offered by the 31 state;

32 (C) Is necessary to establish the identity of the victim; or 34 (4)(a) If the person accused of committing rape, sodomy or sexual abuse or attempted rape, 35 sodomy or sexual abuse intends to offer evidence under subsection (2) or (3) of this section, the ac-36 cused shall make a written motion to offer the evidence not later than 15 days before the date on 37 which the trial in which the evidence is to be offered is scheduled to begin, except that the court 38 may allow the motion to be made at a later date, including during trial, if the court determines ei-39 ther that the evidence is newly discovered and could not have been obtained earlier through the 40 exercise of due diligence or that the issue to which the evidence relates has newly arisen in the 41 case. Any motion made under this paragraph shall be served on all other parties, and on the alleged 42 victim through the office of the prosecutor.

43 (b) The motion described in paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be accompanied by a written 44 offer of proof. If the court determines that the offer of proof contains evidence described in sub-45 section (2) or (3) of this section, the court shall order a hearing in camera to determine if the evi-

1 dence is admissible. At the hearing the parties may call witnesses, including the alleged victim, and 2 offer relevant evidence. Notwithstanding ORS 40.030 (2), if the relevancy of the evidence that the 3 accused seeks to offer in the trial depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the court, at 4 the hearing in camera or at a subsequent hearing in camera scheduled for the same purpose, shall 5 accept evidence on the issue of whether the condition of fact is fulfilled and shall determine the is-6 sue.

7 (c) If the court determines on the basis of the hearing described in paragraph (b) of this sub-8 section that the evidence the accused seeks to offer is relevant and that the probative value of the 9 evidence outweighs the danger of unfair prejudice, the evidence shall be admissible in the trial to 10 the extent an order made by the court specifies evidence that may be offered and areas with respect 11 to which a witness may be examined or cross-examined. An order admitting evidence under this 12 subsection may be appealed by the government before trial.

14 (a) "In camera" means out of the presence of the public and the jury; and 15 (b) "Past sexual behavior" means sexual behavior other than the sexual behavior with respect 16 to which rape, sodomy or sexual abuse or attempted rape, sodomy or sexual abuse is alleged.

19 may be issued by any circuit court judge upon written application made upon oath or affirmation

29 dangerous to life and punishable as a felony;

30 (B) A crime punishable as a felony under ORS 163.266 (1)(b) or (c), 166.720, 167.012, 167.017,

36 (e) A particular description of the nature and location of the facilities from which or the place 37 where the wire, electronic or oral communication is to be intercepted, if known;

38 (f) A particular description of the type of wire, electronic or oral communication sought to be 39 intercepted;

40 (g) The identity of the person, if known, suspected of committing the crime and whose wire, 41 electronic or oral communications are to be intercepted;

42 (h) A full and complete statement as to whether or not other investigative procedures have been 43 tried and failed or why other investigative procedures reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed 44 if tried or are likely to be too dangerous;

45 (i) A statement of the period of time for which the interception is required to be maintained. If

1 the nature of the investigation is such that the authorization for interception should not automat-2 ically terminate when the described type of wire, electronic or oral communication has been first 3 obtained, a description of facts establishing probable cause to believe that additional communi-4 cations of the same type will occur thereafter;

5 (j) A statement as to whether any prior application has been made to intercept wire, electronic 6 or oral communications from the same person and, if such prior application exists, a statement of 7 the current status of that application; and 8 (k) Where the application is for the extension of an existing order, a statement setting forth the 9 results thus far obtained from the interception, or a reasonable explanation of the failure to obtain 10 such results.

11 (2) The judge may require the applicant to furnish further testimony or documentary evidence 12 in support of the application.

13 (3) Upon examination of such application and evidence the judge may enter an ex parte order, 14 as requested or as modified, authorizing or approving interception of wire, electronic or oral com-15 munications within the state if the judge determines on the basis of the facts submitted by the ap-16 plicant that:

17 (a) There is probable cause for belief that an individual is committing, has committed or is about 18 to commit a particular crime described in subsection (1)(c) of this section;

19 (b) There is probable cause for belief that particular communications concerning that crime will 20 be obtained through such interception;

21 (c) Normal investigative procedures have been tried and have failed or reasonably appear to be 22 unlikely to succeed if tried or are likely to be too dangerous; and 23 (d) There is probable cause for belief that the facilities from which, or the place where, the wire, 24 electronic or oral communications to be intercepted are being used, or are about to be used, in 25 connection with the planning or the commission of that crime are open to the public or are owned 26 by, leased to, listed in the name of, or commonly used by the individual suspected.

27 (4) Each order authorizing or approving the interception of any wire, electronic or oral com-28 munication shall specify:

29 (a) The identity of the person, if known, whose communications are to be intercepted;

30 (b) The nature and location of the communications facilities as to which, or the place where, 31 authority to intercept is granted;

32 (c) A particular description of the type of communication sought to be intercepted, and a state-33 ment of the particular crime to which it relates;

34 (d) The identity of the agency authorized to intercept the communications and of the person 35 authorizing the application;

37 whether or not the interception shall automatically terminate when the described communication 38 has been first obtained; and 39 (f) The name of the applicant, date of issuance, and the signature and title of the issuing judge.

40 (5) An order entered pursuant to this section may not authorize or approve the interception of 41 any wire, electronic or oral communication for any period longer than is necessary to achieve the 42 objective of authorization and in no event for longer than 30 days. Extensions of any order may be 43 granted, but only when application for an extension is made in accordance with subsection (1)(k) of 44 this section and the court makes the findings required by subsection (3) of this section. The period 45 of extension shall be no longer than the authorizing judge deems necessary to achieve the purpose

1 for which it is granted and in no event for longer than 30 days. Every order and extension of that 2 order shall contain a provision that the authorization to intercept must be executed as soon as 3 practicable, must be conducted in such a way as to minimize the interception of communications not 4 otherwise subject to interception, and must terminate upon attainment of the authorized objective, 5 or in any event in 30 days.

6 (6) Whenever an order authorizing interception is entered pursuant to this section, the order 7 may require reports to be made to the judge who issued the order showing what progress has been 8 made toward achievement of the authorized objective and the need for continued interception. Such 9 reports shall be made at such intervals as the judge may require.

10 SECTION 5. ORS 137.106 is amended to read:

11 137.106. (1) When a person is convicted of a crime, or a violation as described in ORS 153.008, 12 that has resulted in economic damages, the district attorney shall investigate and present to the 13 court, prior to the time of sentencing, evidence of the nature and amount of the damages. If the 14 court finds from the evidence presented that a victim suffered economic damages, in addition to any 15 other sanction it may impose, the court shall include one of the following in the judgment:

16 (a) A requirement that the defendant pay the victim restitution in a specific amount that equals 17 the full amount of the victim's economic damages as determined by the court.

18 (b) A requirement that the defendant pay the victim restitution, and that the specific amount 19 of restitution will be established by a supplemental judgment based upon a determination made by 20 the court within 90 days of entry of the judgment. In the supplemental judgment, the court shall 21 establish a specific amount of restitution that equals the full amount of the victim's economic dam-22 ages as determined by the court. The court may extend the time within which the determination and 23 supplemental judgment may be completed for good cause. The lien, priority of the lien and ability 24 to enforce the specific amount of restitution established under this paragraph by a supplemental 25 judgment relates back to the date of the original judgment that is supplemented.

26 (c)(A) A requirement that the defendant pay the victim restitution in a specific amount that is 27 less than the full amount of the victim's economic damages, with the consent of the victim.

28 (B) If the defendant is convicted of a person felony, as that term is defined in the rules of the 29 Oregon Criminal Justice Commission, a requirement that the defendant pay the victim restitution 30 in a specific amount that is less than the full amount of the victim's economic damages, only with 31 the written consent of the victim.

32 (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, when a defendant is convicted of a 33 crime described in ORS 163.266 (1)(b) or (c), 167.012 or 167.017, the court shall allow the dis- 34 trict attorney 60 days after the time of sentencing to investigate the nature and amount of 35 any economic damages. The district attorney shall notify the defendant and the court once 36 the amount of damages is known, and the court shall set a hearing not more than 90 days 37 after the time of sentencing during which the district attorney shall present evidence sup- 38 porting the claim. If the court finds from the evidence presented that the victim suffered 39 economic damages, the court shall order restitution in a specific amount that equals the full 40 amount of the victim's economic damages unless the victim consents to a lesser amount.

41 [(2)] (3) After the district attorney makes a presentation described in subsection (1) of this sec-42 tion, if the court is unable to find from the evidence presented that a victim suffered economic 43 damages, the court shall make a finding on the record to that effect.

44 [(3)] (4) No finding made by the court or failure of the court to make a finding under this section 45 limits or impairs the rights of a person injured to sue and recover damages in a civil action as 1 provided in ORS 137.109.

2 [(4)(a)] (5)(a) If a judgment or supplemental judgment described in subsection (1) of this section 3 includes restitution, a court may delay the enforcement of the monetary sanctions, including 4 restitution, only if the defendant alleges and establishes to the satisfaction of the court the 5 defendant's inability to pay the judgment in full at the time the judgment is entered. If the court 6 finds that the defendant is unable to pay, the court may establish or allow an appropriate super-7 vising authority to establish a payment schedule, taking into consideration the financial resources 8 of the defendant and the burden that payment of restitution will impose, with due regard to the 9 other obligations of the defendant. The supervising authority shall be authorized to modify any 10 payment schedule established under this section.

11 (b) As used in this subsection, "supervising authority" means any state or local agency that is 12 authorized to supervise the defendant.

13 [(5)] (6) If the defendant objects to the imposition, amount or distribution of the restitution, the 14 court shall allow the defendant to be heard on such issue at the time of sentencing or at the time 15 the court determines the amount of restitution.
