25 (4) At any time after becoming a judge member, but not later than the date on which the first 26 payment on account of retirement is due, a judge member may elect to provide an addition to the 27 pension of the surviving spouse of the judge member under subsection (3)(a) of this section by se-
28 lecting a reduced retirement allowance for the judge member. The additional pension to the surviv-

31 shall it exceed the reduced retirement allowance elected by the judge member.

32 (5) Any accrued retirement allowance due a retired judge member that is unpaid at the time of 33 death of the judge member shall be paid to the surviving spouse of the judge member. If there is no
34 surviving spouse, the accrued retirement allowance shall be paid to the beneficiary or beneficiaries
35 of the judge member. If there is no surviving spouse or beneficiary, the accrued retirement allow-

37 (6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a judge member shall be considered to 38 have died with no surviving spouse if:

44 (7) The board shall not be liable for any payment made to a beneficiary by reason of a prenuptial
45 or antenuptial agreement filed with the board under subsection (6) of this section unless the board

1 has actual knowledge that the agreement has been revoked.

2 (8) A judge member may elect to have all or part of the pension that is payable to a surviving
3 spouse under this section be paid to a former spouse of the judge member. The election may be made
4 before or after the judge member retires. If a judge member makes an election under this subsection, 5 the board shall pay the designated portion of pension to the former spouse for the life of the former 6 spouse. If a judge member is married at the time an election is made under this subsection, the 7 spouse of the judge member must give written consent to the election. An election under this sub-8 section does not affect the amount of any additional pension elected by a judge member under sub-
9 section (4) of this section. If a judge member makes an election under this subsection and the judge 10 member does not have a surviving spouse when the judge member dies, the former spouse shall re-
11 ceive a life pension for only that part of the pension specified in the election. If a judge member 12 makes an election under this subsection and the judge member has a surviving spouse when the 13 judge member dies:

15 pension payable under this section paid to the former spouse; or
