

Undergraduate Training

South Eugene High School: Graduated June, 1969; National Merit Finalist; Oregon Scholar.

University of California at Santa Cruz: 1969–1973; B.A. in Psychology, with College Honors, June 1973.

University of Washington, Seattle, Washington: Post-Baccalaureate (pre-medical), 1978–1980.

Medical School Training

Mayo Medical School, Rochester, Minnesota: M.D. granted May 19, 1984.

Post-Doctoral Training

Internship: Family Practice, Oregon Health Sciences University, Portland, Oregon; completed June 25, 1985.

Fellowship: Allergy and Environmental Medicine, Theron Randolph, M.D., Human Ecology Action Foundation, Chicago, Illinois; July 1985–January 1986.

Practice Experience

February 1986–February 1988: Private practice in Hubbard, Oregon, combining general practice, allergy/environmental medicine, and osteopathic manipulation.

February 1988–November 1988: Private practice in Aurora, Oregon, and in Eugene, Oregon, with emphasis on osteopathic manipulation and allergy/environmental medicine.

November 1988 to present: Practicing full time in Eugene, Oregon, with practice limited to osteopathic manipulation and allergy/environmental medicine.

Memberships -- Medical Societies

Cranial Academy of the American Academy of Osteopathy -- 1988 to present.

American Academy of Environmental Medicine -- 1989 to 2007.

American Academy of Physicians and Surgeons -- 1992 to 2000.

American EPD Society -- 1996 to 2001.

Great Lakes Academy of Clinical Medicine -- 1996 to 2000.