ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- City of Damascus attempts to adopt comprehensive plan
- Potential effect of legislation on future efforts to adopt plan
- Three plans being sent to voters for consideration in May 2014

EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT: No amendment.

BACKGROUND: ORS 197.757 requires newly incorporated cities to have comprehensive plans and land use regulations acknowledged by the Land Conservation and Development Commission (LCDC) as being in compliance with the statewide planning goals no later than four years after the date of incorporation. The City of Damascus incorporated in 2004 but was unable to complete its plan by the 2008 deadline and has missed three subsequent extensions. In 2010, the Damascus City Council adopted its first comprehensive plan and map and requested acknowledgement but a May 2011 city referendum overturned the comprehensive plan. In 2012, a local initiative required the public to vote on ordinances or plans. In November 2013, LCDC voted to initiate enforcement proceedings under ORS 197.324 for failure to make satisfactory progress towards its compliance schedule, failure to comply with LCDC orders, and failure to adopt a comprehensive plan and land use regulations.

House Bill 4029 A would establish a process and authorize owners of tracts of lands located on the Damascus boundary and within one-half mile of another city to withdraw from the city. The measure would require the legislative body of the city to withdraw the tract of land at or immediately after the public hearing.
