

Senate Bill 1505

Printed pursuant to Senate Interim Rule 213.28 by order of the President of the Senate in conformance with pre-session filing rules, indicating neither advocacy nor opposition on the part of the President (at the request of Senate Interim Committee on Veterans and Emergency Preparedness)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Excludes veterans' disability benefits from calculation of spousal support awards in family law proceedings.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

1
2 Relating to calculation of spousal support; amending ORS 107.105.

3 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

4 SECTION 1. ORS 107.105 is amended to read:

5 107.105. (1) Whenever the court renders a judgment of marital annulment, dissolution or separation,
6 ration, the court may provide in the judgment:

7 (a) For the future care and custody, by one party or jointly, of all minor children of the parties
8 born, adopted or conceived during the marriage and for minor children born to the parties prior to 9 the marriage, as the court may deem just and proper under ORS 107.137. The court may hold a 10 hearing to decide the custody issue prior to any other issues. When appropriate, the court shall 11 recognize the value of close contact with both parents and encourage joint parental custody and 12 joint responsibility for the welfare of the children.

13 (b) For parenting time rights of the parent not having custody of such children and for visitation
14 rights pursuant to a petition filed under ORS 109.119. When a parenting plan has been developed
15 as required by ORS 107.102, the court shall review the parenting plan and, if approved, incorporate 16 the parenting plan into the court's final order. When incorporated into a final order, the parenting
17 plan is determinative of parenting time rights. If the parents have been unable to develop a par-18 enting plan or if either of the parents requests the court to develop a detailed parenting plan, the 19 court shall develop the parenting plan in the best interest of the child, ensuring the noncustodial 20 parent sufficient access to the child to provide for appropriate quality parenting time and ensuring 21 the safety of the parties, if implicated. The court shall deny parenting time to a parent under this 22 paragraph if the court finds that the parent has been convicted of rape under ORS 163.365 or 163.375
23 or other comparable law of another jurisdiction and the rape resulted in the conception of the child.
24 Otherwise, the court may deny parenting time to the noncustodial parent under this subsection only 25 if the court finds that parenting time would endanger the health or safety of the child. In the case
26 of a noncustodial parent who has a disability as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 27 1990 (42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq.), the court may consider the noncustodial parent's disability in deter-
28 mining parenting time only if the court finds that behaviors or limitations related to the noncusto-29 dial parent's disability are endangering or will likely endanger the health, safety or welfare of the 30 child. The court shall recognize the value of close contact with both parents and encourage, when

1 practicable, joint responsibility for the welfare of such children and extensive contact between the 2 minor children of the divided marriage and the parties. If the court awards parenting time to a 3 noncustodial parent who has committed abuse, other than being convicted for rape as described in 4 this paragraph, the court shall make adequate provision for the safety of the child and the other
5 parent in accordance with the provisions of ORS 107.718 (6).

6 (c) For the support of the children of the marriage by the parties. In ordering child support, the 7 formula established under ORS 25.275 shall apply. The court may at any time require an accounting
8 from the custodial parent with reference to the use of the money received as child support. The 9 court is not required to order support for any minor child who has become self-supporting,
10 emancipated or married or for any child who has ceased to attend school after becoming 18 years
11 of age. A general judgment entered under this section may include an amount for support as re-
12 quested in a petition filed under ORS 107.085 or under a motion for relief made pursuant to ORS
13 107.095 (1)(b) for which a limited judgment was not entered, payment of which commences no earlier 14 than the date the petition or motion was served on the nonrequesting party, and the amount shall 15 be considered a request for relief that has been decided by the general judgment for purposes of 16 ORS 18.082 (3).

17 (d) For spousal support, an amount of money for a period of time as may be just and equitable 18 for one party to contribute to the other, in gross or in installments or both. The court may not 19 include the amount of disability benefits payments received by either party from the United 20 States Department of Veterans Affairs in calculating the amount of earnings, income and 21 resources available to each party for the purpose of paying spousal support. Unless otherwise
22 expressly provided in the judgment and except for any unpaid balance of previously ordered spousal
23 support, liability for the payment of spousal support shall terminate on the death of either party,
24 and there shall be no liability for either the payment of spousal support or for any payment in cash
25 or property as a substitute for the payment of spousal support after the death of either party. The 26 court may approve an agreement for the entry of an order for the support of a party. A general
27 judgment entered under this section may include an amount for support as requested in a petition
28 filed under ORS 107.085 or under a motion for relief made pursuant to ORS 107.095 (1)(b) for which 29 a limited judgment was not entered, payment of which commences no earlier than the date the pe-30 tition or motion was served on the nonrequesting party, and the amount shall be considered a re-
31 quest for relief that has been decided by the general judgment for purposes of ORS 18.082 (3). In 32 making the spousal support order, the court shall designate one or more categories of spousal sup-
33 port and shall make findings of the relevant factors in the decision. The court may order:

34 (A) Transitional spousal support as needed for a party to attain education and training neces-
35 sary to allow the party to prepare for reentry into the job market or for advancement therein. The 36 factors to be considered by the court in awarding transitional spousal support include but are not 37 limited to:

- 38 (i) The duration of the marriage;
- 39 (ii) A party's training and employment skills;
- 40 (iii) A party's work experience;
- 41 (iv) The financial needs and resources of each party;
- 42 (v) The tax consequences to each party;
- 43 (vi) A party's custodial and child support responsibilities; and
- 44 (vii) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

45 (B) Compensatory spousal support when there has been a significant financial or other contri-

1 bution by one party to the education, training, vocational skills, career or earning capacity of the 2 other party and when an order for compensatory spousal support is otherwise just and equitable in 3 all of the circumstances. The factors to be considered by the court in awarding compensatory 4 spousal support include but are not limited to:

- 5 (i) The amount, duration and nature of the contribution;
- 6 (ii) The duration of the marriage;
- 7 (iii) The relative earning capacity of the parties;
- 8 (iv) The extent to which the marital estate has already benefited from the contribution;
- 9 (v) The tax consequences to each party; and
- 10 (vi) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

11 (C) Spousal maintenance as a contribution by one spouse to the support of the other for either
12 a specified or an indefinite period. The factors to be considered by the court in awarding spousal 13 maintenance include but are not limited to:

- 14 (i) The duration of the marriage;
- 15 (ii) The age of the parties;
- 16 (iii) The health of the parties, including their physical, mental and emotional condition;
- 17 (iv) The standard of living established during the marriage;
- 18 (v) The relative income and earning capacity of the parties, recognizing that the wage earner's 19 continuing income may be a basis for support distinct from the income that the supported spouse 20 may receive from the distribution of marital property;
- 21 (vi) A party's training and employment skills;
- 22 (vii) A party's work experience;
- 23 (viii) The financial needs and resources of each party;
- 24 (ix) The tax consequences to each party;
- 25 (x) A party's custodial and child support responsibilities; and
- 26 (xi) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

27 (e) For the delivery to one party of such party's personal property in the possession or control 28 of the other at the time of the giving of the judgment.

29 (f) For the division or other disposition between the parties of the real or personal property, or 30 both, of either or both of the parties as may be just and proper in all the circumstances. In deter-
31 mining the division of property under this paragraph, the following apply:

32 (A) A retirement plan or pension or an interest therein shall be considered as property.

33 (B) The court shall consider the contribution of a party as a homemaker as a contribution to 34 the acquisition of marital assets.

35 (C) Except as provided in subparagraph (D) of this paragraph, there is a rebuttable presumption
36 that both parties have contributed equally to the acquisition of property during the marriage, 37 whether such property is jointly or separately held.

38 (D)(i) Property acquired by gift to one party during the marriage and separately held by that 39 party on a continuing basis from the time of receipt is not subject to a presumption of equal con-
40 tribution under subparagraph (C) of this paragraph.

41 (ii) For purposes of this subparagraph, "property acquired by gift" means property acquired by 42 one party through gift, devise, bequest, operation of law, beneficiary designation or inheritance.

43 (E) Subsequent to the filing of a petition for annulment or dissolution of marriage or separation,
44 the rights of the parties in the marital assets shall be considered a species of co-ownership, and a
45 transfer of marital assets under a judgment of annulment or dissolution of marriage or of separation

1 entered on or after October 4, 1977, shall be considered a partitioning of jointly owned property.

2 (F) The court shall require full disclosure of all assets by the parties in arriving at a just 3 property division.

4 (G) In arriving at a just and proper division of property, the court shall consider reasonable
5 costs of sale of assets, taxes and any other costs reasonably anticipated by the parties.

6 (H)(i) If a party has been awarded spousal support in lieu of a share of property, the court shall 7 so state on the record and shall order the obligor to provide for and maintain life insurance in an 8 amount commensurate with the obligation and designating the obligee as beneficiary for the dura-
9 tion of the obligation.

10 (ii) The obligee or attorney of the obligee shall cause a certified copy of the judgment to be 11 delivered to the life insurance company or companies.

12 (iii) If the obligee or the attorney of the obligee delivers a true copy of the judgment to the life
13 insurance company or companies, identifying the policies involved and requesting such notification
14 under this section, the company or companies shall notify the obligee, as beneficiary of the insur-
15 ance policy, whenever the policyholder takes any action that will change the beneficiary or reduce 16 the benefits of the policy. Either party may request notification by the insurer when premium pay-
17 ments have not been made. If the obligor is ordered to provide for and maintain life insurance, the 18 obligor shall provide to the obligee a true copy of the policy. The obligor shall also provide to the 19 obligee written notice of any action that will reduce the benefits or change the designation of the 20 beneficiaries under the policy.

21 (g) For the creation of trusts as follows:

22 (A) For the appointment of one or more trustees to hold, control and manage for the benefit of 23 the children of the parties, of the marriage or otherwise such of the real or personal property of 24 either or both of the parties, as the court may order to be allocated or appropriated to their support 25 and welfare, and to collect, receive, expend, manage or invest any sum of money awarded for the 26 support and welfare of minor children of the parties.

27 (B) For the appointment of one or more trustees to hold, manage and control such amount of 28 money or such real or personal property of either or both of the parties, as may be set aside, allo-
29 cated or appropriated for the support of a party.

30 (C) For the establishment of the terms of the trust and provisions for the disposition or distrib-
31 ution of such money or property to or between the parties, their successors, heirs and assigns after 32 the purpose of the trust has been accomplished. Upon petition of a party or a person having an in-33 terest in the trust showing a change of circumstances warranting a change in the terms of the trust, 34 the court may make and direct reasonable modifications in its terms.

35 (h) To change the name of either spouse to a name the spouse held before the marriage. The 36 court shall order a change if it is requested by the affected party.

37 (i) For a money award for any sums of money found to be then remaining unpaid upon any order
38 or limited judgment entered under ORS 107.095. If a limited judgment was entered under ORS 39 107.095, the limited judgment shall continue to be enforceable for any amounts not paid under the 40 limited judgment unless those amounts are included in the money award made by the general judg-41 ment.

42 (j) For an award of reasonable attorney fees and costs and expenses reasonably incurred in the 43 action in favor of a party or in favor of a party's attorney.

44 (2) In determining the proper amount of support and the proper division of property under sub-
45 section (1)(c), (d) and (f) of this section, the court may consider evidence of the tax consequences

1 on the parties of its proposed judgment.

2 (3) Upon the filing of the judgment, the property division ordered shall be deemed effective for 3 all purposes. This transfer by judgment, which shall affect solely owned property transferred to the 4 other spouse as well as commonly owned property in the same manner as would a declaration of a
5 resulting trust in favor of the spouse to whom the property is awarded, is not a taxable sale or ex-6 change.

7 (4) If an appeal is taken from a judgment of annulment or dissolution of marriage or of sepa-
8 ration or from any part of a judgment rendered in pursuance of the provisions of ORS 107.005 to 9 107.086, 107.095, 107.105, 107.115 to 107.174, 107.405, 107.425, 107.445 to 107.520, 107.540 and 107.610,
10 the court rendering the judgment may provide in a supplemental judgment for any relief provided
11 for in ORS 107.095 and shall provide that the relief granted in the judgment is to be in effect only 12 during the pendency of the appeal. A supplemental judgment under this subsection may be enforced
13 as provided in ORS 33.015 to 33.155 and ORS chapter 18. A supplemental judgment under this sub-14 section may be appealed in the same manner as provided for supplemental judgments modifying a 15 domestic relations judgment under ORS 19.275.

16 (5) If an appeal is taken from the judgment or other appealable order in a suit for annulment
17 or dissolution of a marriage or for separation and the appellate court awards costs and disburse-
18 ments to a party, the court may also award to that party, as part of the costs, such additional sum 19 of money as it may adjudge reasonable as an attorney fee on the appeal.

20 (6) If, as a result of a suit for the annulment or dissolution of a marriage or for separation, the 21 parties to such suit become owners of an undivided interest in any real or personal property, or 22 both, either party may maintain supplemental proceedings by filing a petition in such suit for the 23 partition of such real or personal property, or both, within two years from the entry of the judgment, 24 showing among other things that the original parties to the judgment and their joint or several 25 creditors having a lien upon any such real or personal property, if any there be, constitute the sole 26 and only necessary parties to such supplemental proceedings. The procedure in the supplemental 27 proceedings, so far as applicable, shall be the procedure provided in ORS 105.405 for the partition 28 of real property, and the court granting the judgment shall have in the first instance and retain 29 jurisdiction in equity therefor.
