31 proved by the court.

32 (5) The bond of the conservator continues in effect until the sureties on the bond are released 33 by order of the court.

34 (6) The court may at any time increase or reduce the amount of the bond required of a 35 conservator for the protection of the protected person and the estate of the protected person.

36 (7) If a surety on a bond required by this section gives notice of intent to cancel the bond, the 37 conservator shall execute and file in the protective proceeding a new bond before the cancellation
38 date specified by the surety. The new bond shall be in the amount and subject to those conditions 39 that may be required by the court. If the conservator fails to file a new bond, the authority of the 40 conservator ends on the date specified by the surety for cancellation of the bond. The letters of 41 conservatorship issued to the conservator are void from that date, and the conservator must make 42 and file the final accounting of the conservator.
