

"No law shall violate the right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable search, or seizure; and no warrant shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath, or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the person or thing to be seized."

Do you really want to go further down the road of messing with basic rights – focus on real problems – do work that is good and leads us forward instead of tearing us down. Look at the world news on any given day to see what will happen.

Thx

Vance Nartker