

I would like to see more training places available but I don't like the idea of more places that don't allow for concealed carry. It seems that the only things these gun laws do is prevent honest loyal citizens from exercising their 2nd amendment rights. Please do let this happen to us. Thank you for service. Margaret L. Holley