

Kids are the future of Oregon and our nation! I cannot think of a better investment of tax dollars than in their education and providing opportunities for them to grow. As a teacher, coach and parent of two boys I want only the best for our youth. We only get one chance at doing this right. Every dollar that goes to kids' learning is money well spent.

We pray for you who make great decisions that affect the lives of our children.

Respectfully,

Nathan Saito