

To Whom it May Concern,

Oregon is known to have the second largest class sizes in the nation. Class size has a negative impact on the academic, social, and emotional growth of each child. I am hopeful that our governing parties make children a priority.

Julie Wellette First Grade

Terrebonne Community School