ORS 161.370

Court order to send a defendant for mental health treatment so he or she can be:

- “Restored to competency”
- Able to “aid and assist” in her or his own defense

Oregon State Hospital services for patients under a .370 order

Primary treatment goals:

- Stabilization
- Ability to cooperate with attorneys and participate in their own defense

Treatment services:

- Treatment teams
- Treatment malls

Possible evaluation outcomes

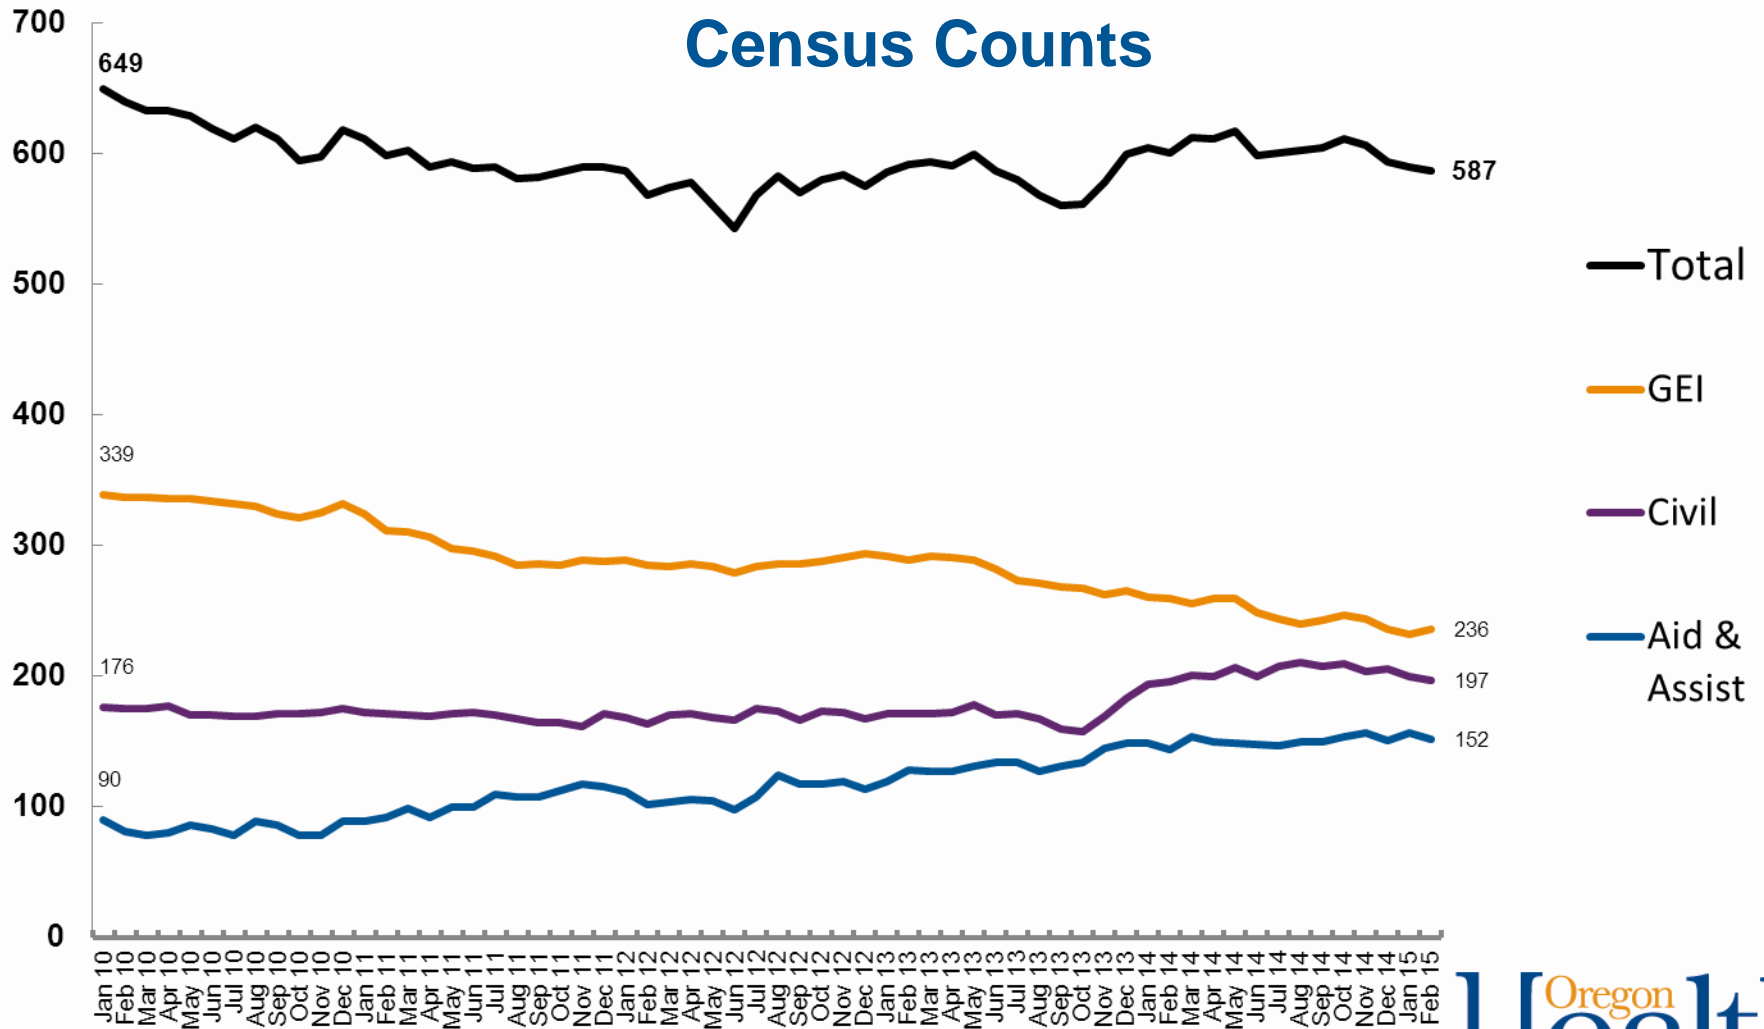

The evaluator may determine the patient is:

- Able – competent to stand trial
Patient sent back to jail to await trial
- Not yet able – not competent yet
Patient continues treatment at OSH
- Never able – not probable to regain competency in the foreseeable future
Court dismisses the charges and either:
 - Orders that the patient be discharged; or
 - Initiates civil commitment proceedings

Right care, right place, right time

- Making sure only people who need hospital-level care go to the hospital
- Connecting people with services in their own communities
- HB 3100 (2011) – ORS 161.370
 - Gave courts flexibility over where people are treated when they are accused of a non-violent crime
 - Courts may commit people to the state hospital only if:
 - They are a danger to self or others; or
 - Services not available in their communities
