

I am in full support of SB 731. Vaccinations should not be mandated by an employer as a condition of employment. And vaccination status should not be a part of employment decisions. Vaccination is a personal health care decision made by an individual in consultation with their doctor and subject to informed consent. Employee privacy is protected by HIPAA rules.

Liz Schmidt
Ashland, Oregon