

A center piece of the American system of government is non-discrimination towards person or group of people.

Why does the State of Oregon think it has the right to discriminate against gun owners.

Dean Kennedy