

My husband and I both work for the school, we really struggle with no unemployment benefits on our off time, it is hard to find employment just for that short time. We really love work with the kids but don't know how long we can do it without unemployment benefits. Please consider are concerns.

Thanks,

Victoria and Sam Falley