

SB 525 unnecessarily expands the definition of "domestic violence"; remove this provision.
A person accused of any crime should have due process and a conviction for the crime before action is taken.

No one wants this done to themselves, and to not be a hypocrite must want the same for all others.
I oppose SB 525 unless it has the -1 and -3 amendments.