

SB 470

To whom it may concern:

It is very difficult to provide for our families when you have no income for the summer months. I have several coworkers that are single parents and they struggle greatly to make ends meet during the months school is out. Being able to access unemployment would be of great help.

Thank you,
Esther Oropeza
Gervais