

I resent the fact that the people elected to represent Oregonians are bought and paid for by out of state radical organizations such as Bloomberg and other such organizations. We already have laws on the books to take care of this.