

Why does the will of Michael Bloomberg who is not even a resident of this state come before the rights it's citizens? California, New York, Connecticut, Maryland and now Washington have laws like this. They haven't changed anything for the criminal, only the law abiding. Why do we need it? Maybe it's because our state senators were bought out by a rich New Yorker? I will never vote democrat again! John Walker