

Once again the Senate is considering a bill that will do nothing to prevent criminals from purchasing guns, and do nothing to increase public safety. It will however make life more difficult for the law abiding gun owner delaying firearm purchases, making good firearm training more difficult and creating traps for the normally law abiding to inadvertently violate a new law. What part of "Shall not be infringed" don't you understand.

STEVE FUNK CDL

PH # 503 866 2760

WEB: stevefunkcdl.com

EMAIL: stevefunk@colton.com