

Dear Senator Boquist,
Having read SB 941 I feel that there are several features that are not only laughable but totally, in my opinion, against our rights.

Having to get a background check to transfer to friend, neighbors, and just about anybody is an extreme method that is only going to impose hardships in an everyday transaction but also hurts financially.

I feel that criminals are not going to get or give "background checks" when they move a gun around. That is the definition of criminals. They are not concerned with laws.

Legislation is certainly needed, common sense wise, but foolish, ridiculous legislation only hurts or inconveniences or makes criminals of me and my friends.

I appreciate your consideration in this matter.

Regards,

Russ Skustad
