

It would be nice if our politicians remembered the whole "We The People..." thing. I am entirely against this and all attempts to limit or deny any American their Second Amendment rights. If this is how Democrats respond to the end of their service (brought about by arrogance and corruption), then let that end come even faster.

Oregon Voter,
Ron Smith
aidan_52@aol.com