

Please don't tax the fuel for my recreational flying. Flying is very expensive because of all the constraints already in place. A tax increase on leaded aviation fuel will create a hardship for many recreational pilots. Alternative fuels are being studied and should be available soon, so a tax would be short lived.

Dale Anderson

Bend, Oregon