

You are stepping into citizens homes. Your stance in this matter is I know better than you do. This is not your job. This is the responsibility of the parents. Government does not need to run the household.