

Raszka Shelley

From: ANNE KILEY <annekiley@creativelinkgraphics.com>
Sent: Wednesday, April 15, 2015 1:45 PM
To: Raszka Shelley
Subject: House Bill 3514

This bill, which would prevent gray wolves from ever being included on the state's list of threatened or endangered species, is an unreasonable and frivolous waste of the legislature's time. The gray wolf is clearly endangered in Oregon and deserves the state's protection. This top-line predator's role in maintaining the wild ecosystem has been proven by science and is vital to the economic future of the state and the country.

Anne Kiley
Pulteney, NY