

Senate Bill 945 -- all about making children into weak prey for predators who expect the government to come save them.

Except that the government can't and won't. The government wants to sell the children to the medical/pharmaceutical mafia, the incarceration systems and the military systems, or feed on them as passive workers.