

If we could just peel back the cloak of ideology on this issue, there is no one in their right mind who would not support this measure. It is way past time to have sane, sensible and potentially life saving background checks in place. Please support this bill.

Annie Winn