

This bill failed to pass in 2013 and 2014 due to popular opposition and the large number of sheriffs who publically stated that would not enforce this bill if passed.

From what I have read, over 20 sheriffs have again stated that they would not enforce this bill if it became law.

You are elected officials who took a vow to serve the will of the people, NOT your own egos!

Gary Anderson