

This is very simple. The democrats (liberal gun haters) will do anything to find out who has firearms. This bill is ridiculous because the honest citizens will be the only ones going through this exercise. The bad guys won't register their guns because they are "BadGuys". The result, the liberals will know that the honest people have guns, because they registered them.

Arlan Schendel