

Do not make decisions (laws that affect people's lives) based on emotion. Logic, rational thought, and statistical facts tells us plainly we don't need yet another "feel good" law that criminals will ignore, and worse, could make criminals out of law abiding citizens.

David Lowery